DEATHS.

FIGG.—S. C. Figg, Jr., son of S. C. Figg, of Louisville, died in that city the 23rd with a complication of diseases. The child was a year old the 15th of June and was only sick one day. He was a bright youngster and will be greatly missed. The family have our deepest sympathy in their bereavement.

WILLS.—Henry Wills, familiarly known as "Uncle Henry," died at his home at Salt Lick, Ky., Wednesday morning, June 22, 1910. He was born May 3, 1832, and with the exception of 6 years spent in Ohio, he spent his life on the same farm. He has been very feeble, both in mind and body since the death of his wife on April 25, 1905. He is survived by 7 children; four sons: Wesley and John Wills, of Salt Lick; B. D. Wills, of Morehead, and B. F. Wills, of Covington; and three daughters: Mrs. J. H. Downs, of Wakita, Okla.; Mrs. D. C. Gorman, of this city, and Mrs. J. G. Greer, of Camargo. He is also survived by one brother, Enoch Wills, of Salt Lick. He was laid to rest Thursday afternoon by the Salt Lick Masonic Lodge of which he was a member. The bereaved children and brother have the sympathy of many friends.

Reis Wins.

The injunction suit of the city vs. E. T. Reis, filed some weeks ago, to prevent the repair, without a permit from the city, of a frame building on the west side of South Maysville street, that had been damaged by fire, was heard by Judge T. J. Nunn, of the Court of Appeals, Monday, and the injunction dissolved. Judges Hobson and Carroll, by invitation of Judge Nunn, also heard the motion. This is quite a victory for Mr. Reis, who will no doubt finish repairing his building at once.
